School Year 1943-1944

Mary Helen Mitchell

Miss Mitchell:
To you I wish you the best of luck and happiness in the world. I will never forget you as being one of the sweetest teachers I know and also the sweetest person I know.

To one of the most understanding and patient teachers I have ever known. I shall always remember how hard you tried to get some math into me.

Manassa
Class '44

To Miss Mitchell and I have had. I will always remember you as my favorite teacher.

Gaselle Stephens

Dear Miss Mitchell,
I believe that you are really and truly my favorite teacher. Because by so many little things. I'll never forget you. You must "admit" admire you for it.

Love
June Manasseh

Miss Mitchell, I admire you because you are such a good understanding teacher and always have time to help us with our lessons. I hope you have a very successful year in your chosen work. Good luck to you.

WE PRESENT

To you THE PANTHER of 1944. Six years ago the dream that was Vickery-Hillcrest became a reality. The same oneness of purpose, the same spirit of unity, the same air of democracy that prevailed then are more dominant than ever today. It has been our objective to give you a volume of pictures and writings that record the progress made this year. Each section has been planned so that it will, we hope, appeal to every person in the school. And, if we have made for you a book of happy memories, if we have marked down the achievements of a greater Vickery-Hillcrest, we have fulfilled our aim.

Senior Slams

DAVID ALBERT - He is gentle, he is shy,
But there is mischief in his eye

CLYDE EARL ALY - He is a gentleman, because his nature
Is kind and affable to every creature

BUDDY SHERMAN - He casts off his friends as a huntsman his pack,
For he knows when he pleases, he can call them back

MARILYN MARTIN - Her air, her manner, all who saw admired,
Courteous though coy, gentle though retired

DOROTHY WATTS - She is good as she is fair;
None--none on earth can compare

DOROTHY RICHARDSON - Because her vigor is like a new-minted penny,
She is admired and loved by many

BRUCE LYNN - Thou hast so much wit and mirth about thee,
There is no living with thee nor without thee

BUDDY DIETERICH - His friends they are many, his equals are few.
With his hale, kindly manner, he'll surely win you

MARIE EIDT - Its the words you say, and the smiles you wear,
That make you well loved everwhere.

GRADY BROWN - After all is said and done,
There is really only one

MILES MITCHELL - I love to dance, I love to play
I put worry off to another day

PAULA ARNOLD - She loves everyone, great and small,
And in turn is loved by all

ROBERT RICHARDS - Much may be said in his favor,
One thing is his good behavior

ALYNE COLE - Just a bit of charm and grace,
To liven up the whole dull place

JOHN CLARK - Popular, smart, witty, and neat:
All the girls think he's sweet

JOANN HUTCHINSON - She's attractive, she's witty,
She's stylish, she's pretty

LEON LOVELESS - Not even genus compares with grit,
And a man can't lose if he will not quit

TAV LUPTON - A little mischief by the way,
A little fun to spice each day

BOB RENFROW - We like him more and more each day,
We don't know why--it's just his way

DOROTHY BETZ - A quiet miss with a quiet way
With laughing heart and spirit gay

RAY BELL - Girls, girls, girls, galore!!
But always wishing for just one more

MARY LOU McBRIDE - Impulsive, earnest, prompt to act
She makes her generous thought an act

NANCY CHEANEY - We see her little, and hear her less,
But she's a mighty fine girl we must confess

GLEN BRYAN - Many an admirer, never a foe,
When asked a favor, he never said "No".

WALDO CLARK - When Fun and Duty clash,
Let Duty go to smash

JEANNE SMITH - Modest, timid, and very sweet,
Just the sort one likes to meet

JOE PRUITT - Full of laughter and seriousness, too,
Goodbye, Joe, good luck to you

BETTY JO SPILLMAN - There is no one like Betty Jo,
That is why we like her so

JAY CURTICE - Possess a gift too rare to tell,
He does all things, and does them well

DAN SMITH - Whatever skeptic could inquire for,
For every why he has a wherefore.

SUZANNE KEANE - Her care was never to offend,
And every creature was her friend

EDITH DODSON - She was so bright and full of fun;
Her joyful laugh cheered everyone

JAMES SPENCE - Look at the curls!
Don't be envious girls

WANDA LU GUFFEY - When you see a crowd of boys in the hall,
She is usually the cause of it all

JIMMIE MAYES - She's the gal who moves away,
But she comes back every day.

For DEFENSE

Above is a picture of V. H. H. S. students looking at a jeep that visited us from Love Field. We bought enough Bonds and Stamps to pay for four jeeps and we considered the jeeps from Love Field as "ours".

The students totaled $74,000 in Bonds for the Fourth War Loan Drive and have also helped by saving Waste Paper and donating materials for the Red Cross.

The help we have given our boys has been but a small amount of the great work being done by a nation of hard-working people. We're proud of the job we are doing and we are working shoulder to shoulder with our fighting men and helping them to turn the Enemy back.

The Panthers met the Buckner team in an afternoon game on September 17, at Buckner's Orphanage and won 7 to 6.

Vickery-Hillcrest played Forney in another afternoon game on September 24. The Panthers were victorious, 19 to 6.

On a muddy field the Panther team bowed to Lancaster, District champs, 20 to 0. It was the first night game, October 1.

On October 8 the huge Wilmer Hutchin's team defeated the Panthers 41 to 6 on the Wilmer Hutchin's High School gridiron.

The Irving Tigers beat a hard fighting Panther team 31 to 0. It was a night game, October 22.

On October 29 at Ferris the score was 12 to 12; nevertheless the Panthers rolled up eleven first downs and a tremendous amount of yardage to four first downs for Ferris.

Then Grand Prairie trimmed the Panthers 30 to 12, but this was the first time 2 scores were made in one game on the Gopher's.

The Richardson Eagles, aided by all the good breaks won from Vickery-Hillcrest 25 to 7, on November 19.

TO THE STUDENT BODY AND FACULTY- whose whole-hearted support and cooperation has been so deeply inspiring and encouraging to this year's annual staff, we want to express our genuine gratitude.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS- we want to say "thanks" for your splendid cooperation. Without your unselfish backing, this 1944 edition of our annual would not have been possible.

TO OUR SPONSOR- No words can express our sincere sppreciation- no words could ever thank her for so graciously giving her time to assist us whenever and wherever she could. For the last four years she has willingly and incessantly stood by us, in thick and thin, making possible the four outstanding annuals that this years senior class has had the good fortune of receiving.

THESE THREE- will be very dominant in the happy memories which will be recalled by us in later years as we turn through the pages of THE PANTHER 1944.
